What your donations provide

Tasty and nutritious, good food is job one!

We refer to them as “basic needs,” but the children of Vinh Son call these gifts their “daily bread.” Here’s a list of the most common items that FVSO supplies throughout the year: rice, instant noodles, fish, pork, cooking oil, vegetables, dried fish, sodium glutamate, fish sauce, eggs, meat, and powdered milk. Your generosity supplies it all. We receive pictures and receipts each time we deliver funds for food. That’s what this newsletter is about, sharing with you some of the images that you make possible.

FVSO will spend about $37,600 this year on the purchase of food. That equates to $60 per child.

Hey, who's got the fish sauce?

Looking at these pictures can make one hungry!

The Sisters provide receipts for major food purchases. They also have the option to buy “fill-in” items as needed. Be assured that all contributions are spent carefully, based upon our annual needs assessment. They do a great job providing healthy meals for the kids!

The Vinh Son caregivers take pride in getting the biggest “bang for the dong” when they go to market. They wish to thank you!
